Goals

- Engaging with NGOs: As a member of the Salt and Pepper Club's Design team, my first step is to actively engage with NGOs that focus on educating and providing food to underprivileged children and women. By establishing direct communication with these organizations, I can gain valuable insights into the real challenges they face and better understand the specific needs of the communities they serve.
- Identifying Untapped Resources: Through close collaboration with the NGOs, I aim to identify untapped facilities and resources that can be utilized to enhance their impact. This could include identifying potential donors, sponsors, or partners who can contribute to their cause, as well as discovering underutilized spaces that could be transformed into educational centers or community kitchens to feed those in need.
- Innovative Fundraising: Utilizing my skills as a designer, I will create impactful posters and promotional materials to support fundraising initiatives for the Paryaas team. These fundraisers will help generate much-needed funds for the NGOs, enabling them to expand their reach and provide better education and nutrition to underprivileged children and women. The aim is to promote these fundraisers effectively, attracting both local and global support.
- Empowering Women: Recognizing the vital role women play in the community, I am dedicated to involving women in every step of the process. This includes encouraging their active participation in the NGOs' decision-making processes, as well as providing training and skill development opportunities to empower them further. By involving women, we can foster a long-lasting impact, as they often act as change agents within their families and communities.
- Sustainable Impact: As a team, we are committed to ensuring that our efforts result in sustainable and long-term change. We will work closely with the NGOs to propose innovative solutions and strategies that can help the communities become self-reliant over time. This might include setting up vocational training programs for women to develop income-generating skills or initiating community farming projects to improve food security in the long run.

Achievements

1. Enhanced Educational Opportunities: Through our collaborative efforts with the NGOs, we successfully identified and tapped into previously untapped resources, allowing for the expansion of educational facilities. As a result, more underprivileged children gained access to quality education, equipping them with the tools they need to break free from the cycle of poverty and create a better future for themselves.

2. Improved Nutrition for Vulnerable Communities: The innovative fundraising campaigns we designed for the Paryaas team brought significant financial support to the NGOs, enabling them to establish and maintain community kitchens. As a result, underprivileged women and children received regular nutritious meals, positively impacting their health, well-being, and overall development.

3. Empowered Women Leaders: By actively involving women in every aspect of our initiatives, we fostered an environment of empowerment and gender equality. Women from the communities we worked with were encouraged to take on leadership roles within the NGOs, leading to a more inclusive decision-making process and a stronger voice for women in their communities.

4. Sustainable Community Projects: Our focus on sustainability paid off as we initiated various community-driven projects. These included vocational training programs that empowered women with valuable skills, leading to increased income generation and financial independence for many families. Additionally, our community farming projects contributed to improved food security, reducing the vulnerability of underprivileged communities to food crises.

4. Long-lasting Impact: Through our unwavering commitment and action-oriented approach, we contributed to creating a long-lasting impact on the lives of underprivileged children, women, and their communities. The efforts we put into understanding the real problems faced by the NGOs and the communities allowed us to propose effective solutions, ensuring that positive change continued beyond the duration of our individual projects.

Plan and Adherence

1. The supervisor and I held regular meetings to go over the needs of the residents and, in response, arrange our weekly tasks.

2. Appropriate sessions were held with the residents, sometimes taking extra time to make sure they fully understood and retained the information.

Future Goals

1. Continue providing our support and help to the NGO and be available for any requirements they may have in the future.
2. Increase awareness about the NGO among our peers and friends to ensure that they receive as much support as possible.
3. Learn more about the difficulties blind people face in using technologies and understand how much of the stuff we use is not accessible to them, and try to come up with ideas that can help them.
